History of Wolfeboro

Wolfeboro is in the southern portion of Carroll county, New Hampshire. Has a population of about 3,000. Can be reached by the northern division of the Boston & Maine railroad and in summer by boats connecting at various points on Lake Winnipesaukee with the Boston & Maine railroad. Two beautiful lakes, Wentworth and Winnipesaukee, adjacent. Is 10 miles from Ossipee, the county seat, (24 miles by rail), 50 miles from Concord, the state capital, and 108 miles from Boston. Agriculture, lumbering and its entertainment of summer visitors make up its business. A box factory, a shoe factory, a woollen mill, an excelsior factory and a plant for making axe handles are located in the town. Is a famous summer resort with good fishing and boating.

IMPORTANT FACTS

Named for General James Wolfe. Accepted spelling, Wolfeboro.

Oldest summer resort in America. Gov. John Wentworth spent summers here as early as 1770.

Water works and electric light plant owned and operated by the town. Light plant free of debt.

Volunteer fire department of six companies.

Home of Brewster Free Academy.

Has free library, called Brewster Library, of some 4,000 volumes.

EARLY SETTLEMENT

Although the permanent settlement of the town of Wolfborough, Wolfeboro as it is now spelled, began in 1768, the first attempt was made by Benjamin Blake and Reuben Libbey, 1767, but the breaking of Libbey's leg by a falling tree cost Wolfeboro a year of its history. Blake set the bone as well as he was able, constructed a shelter for Libbey, placed food and water near him and hurried to Gilmanton for aid. Returning in two days he found Libbey in torture from thirst and the annoyance of insects. Libbey pulled through however, living to become one of the most prominent citizens of early Wolfeboro. Benjamin Blake was the first settler.

In 1768, nine persons commenced settlements in the southwest part of Wolfeboro. They were Henry Rust, one of the proprietors, Benjamin Blake, Reuben Libbey, James Lucas, Samuel Tibbetts, Joseph Lary, Thomas Piper, Thomas Taylor and William Fullerton. None of this nine brought his family with him at that time.

Henry Rust and Reuben Libbey were most active in the affairs of the new town. All of the settlers busied themselves with preparing homes in what was then a wilderness and in 1773, Henry Rust had completed the handsomest house in town on the northerly shore of "Rust's Pond." Here he moved his family. He was known as "Captain" from the fact that he was a ship builder and later as "Colonel" through military achievement.

Reuben Libbey came from New Durham, bringing the first cows and the first horse. His marriage to Sarah, daughter of Widow Mary Fullerton, was the first in Wolfeboro. Although illiterate, Libbey was a member of several boards of selectmen and in 1785 and 1794, went to the legislature. He served in the Rhode Island expedition in 1779. He was noted as a bear hunter.

Seven persons took 50 acre lots in 1768 under the patronage of Paul March, one of the proprietors, who had agreed to have ten settlers in Wolfeboro by the following spring. James Lucas took the first lot and his brother Thomas was associated with him. Both had families. James was moderator of the first town meeting and Thomas a member of the first board of selectmen. They came from Suncook.

Samuel Tebbets had the second lot. He was pound keeper for several years, millwright and framed the town meeting house. His son, Levi, married and raised a large family on the home farm.

The third lot was settled by Joseph Lary. Joseph's wife carried the boards for roofing up grade for a mile.

Thomas Piper, coming from Stratham, had the fourth lot. After two years he became the miller at "Mills," but afterwards returned to Wolfeboro where he lived until his death. He had seven children, Thomas, David, Samuel, Timothy, John, Mary and Susan.

Thomas Taylor came from Gilmanton to take the fifth lot. His son, Wiggins Taylor, was the first male child to be born in Wolfeboro.

Benjamin Blake took the sixth lot. With the aid of his robust wife, formerly Mary Connor, he built the first log house in the town. The property has never been out of the Blake family.

William Fullerton had the seventh lot, but was drowned while crossing Smith's River a short time after his arrival. His widow, Mary Fullerton, raised eight children unaided on the property. Her name appears in the town inventory for many years after its settlement.

These are the original settlers of Wolfeboro from whom many of the leading families of the town today proudly trace their descent.

Ebenezer Meader was the first blacksmith. He brought the first pig to Wolfeboro. So essential was he to the settlers that the town hired Enoch Thomas to take Meader's place in the army. He had nine children.

Interesting in the early history of the town, was the farm of Governor John Wentworth, the last provincial governor of New Hampshire. His dream of an English country seat in the province never came true, owning to the war, and its failure had much to do with arresting the progress of the town for many years. He began operations in 1768, and portions of the old manor house are still standing.

INCORPORATION

In 1770 the proprietors of the town chose a committee of Henry Rust, A. R. Cutter and John Parker to apply to Gov. Wentworth for a charter. The application was made July 9, 1770, signed by Cutter and Parker, Capt. Rust being absent on a sea voyage. The charter was granted by the governor August 21, 1770, and on the 28th day of September of that year the first town meeting was held. James Lucas was elected moderator; Jotham Rindge, town clerk; Capt. Thomas Lucas, John Sinkler and Jacob Sceggel, selectmen; Thomas Taylor, constable; Benjamin Blake, Samuel Tebbetts, Aaron Frost and Benjamin Folsom, surveyors. These were the first officials of the new town. The officers for 1771 were: Thomas Lucas, moderator; John Flagg, town clerk; Thomas Lucas, Jacob Sceggel and John Sinkler, selectmen; Ithiel Clifford, constable; Benjamin Folsom and Samuel Tebbetts, surveyors; Benjamin Folsom and Thomas Piper, fence viewers; the same two as hog reeves. The officers for 1772 were: Thomas Lucas, moderator; John Flagg, town clerk; John Flagg, Benjamin Folsom and Ithiel Clifford, selectmen; Andrew Wiggin, constable; Thomas Lucas, Ithiel Clifford and Jacob Sceggel, surveyors; Joseph Lary, Benjamin Folsom, James Lucas, Jr., hog reeves; Thomas Piper and Jacob Sceggel, fence viewers. In 1773 the officers were: Thomas Lucas, moderator; John Sinkler, town clerk; Benjamin Folsom, Thomas Taylor and James Conner, selectmen; Joseph Lary, constable; Thomas Lucas, Benjamin Folsom, surveyors; Thomas Piper and Benjamin Folsom, hog-reeves; Benjamin Blake and George Woodhouse, fence viewers; Thomas Piper and Jonathan Hersey, deer keepers. From this year on the town officers are given in another list. The seemingly minor officers are given at this early date, as they were at that time of greatest importance to the early settlers.

WOLFEBORO'S CHARTER

Province of New Hampshire, George the Third, by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, The Defender of the Faith, etc.

To all people to whom these presents shall come, GREETING:

have erected and ordained, and, by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, do will and ordain, that our loving subjects residing on the tract of land aforesaid, or that shall hereafter reside and improve thereon; (the same being butted and bounded as follows:

BEGINNING at the northeasterly corner of a tract of land called New Durham, then running north forty-eight degrees east, on the head or upper line of a tract of land called Middleton, and on that called Salmon Falls town or East town, or as those head lines run, joining thereon, and running so far as that a line running from thence six miles northwest, and then southwest to Winnipiseokee Pond, and then by the side of said pond, joining thereon, until the aforesaid corner first mentioned bears southeast; and then running southeast to the said corner, which completes thirty- six square miles, the content of said Wolfborough;) shall be, and by these presents are declared to be a town corporate, and are hereby erected and incorporated into a body politick and corporate, to have countenance and succession forever, by the name of Wolfborough, with all powers, authorities, privileges, immunities and franchises, which any other town in said Province by law hold and enjoy; Always reserving to us, our heirs and successors, the full power and right of dividing said town when it shall appear necessary and convenient for the inhabitants thereof; also, reserving to us, our heirs and successors, all white pine trees which are or shall be found, growing and being within and upon the said tract of land, fit for the use of our royal navy. The said inhabitants by these presents shall have and enjoy the liberty and privilege of holding an annual fair or mart within the said town; which fair shall be held and kept on the first Tuesday following the 21st day of September annually.

PROVIDED nevertheless, and it is hereby declared that this charter and grant is not intended, and shall not, in any manner, be construed to effect the private property of the soil within the limits aforesaid; and, as the several towns within our said province, are, by the laws thereof enabled and authorized to assemble, and, by the majority of the voters present, to choose all officers, and transact such affairs as in the said laws are declared;—We do, by these presents, nominate and appoint Mr. Jotham Rindge to call the first meeting of said inhabitants, to be held within the said town, on the 28th of September inst., giving legal notice of the time and design of holding such meeting; after which the annual meeting of said town shall be held therein for the choice of said officers, and the purposes aforesaid, on the last Tuesday of March annually. In testimony whereof, we have caused the seal of our said Province to be hereunto affixed.

Witness, our truly beloved John Wentworth, Esquire, our Governor and Commander-in-Chief aforesaid, the twenty first day of August, in the tenth year of our reign, Anno Domini Christi, 1770.

By His Excellency's command, with advice of Council.

J. WENTWORTH. (L. S.)

MILITARY HISTORY

Wolfeboro's military history, like that of most New England towns, naturally divides itself into two distinct periods; the Revolution and the Civil War. Particularly significant in the progress of the new town was the Revolution, for it caused the departure of Governor John Wentworth and the abandonement of operations upon his farm, the development of which promised such commercial success to Wolfeboro. The Civil War did not play such an important part in the progressive history of Wolfeboro, though it had its sad importance to the town.

THE REVOLUTION

The sum of 5 pounds, 10 shillings, 8 pence was raised in 1773, to purchase powder and ammunition for the town. This was done and the supply placed in the custody of Moses Ham, who delivered it to the authorities Nov. 15, 1775. Four young men of the town enlisted before the Battle of Bunker Hill, Jeremiah Gould, James Lucas, Ichabod Tebbetts and Moses Tebbetts. They fought with Capt. Benjamin Pitman's company in the regiment of Col. Enoch Poor. Gould and the two Tebbetts served for several years. The following are Wolfeboro men who served: Benjamin Thomas, Thomas Bridges, Zachariah Bunker, Garrott Byron, Archibald Campbell, John Fullerton, Jeremiah Gould, James Fullerton, Moses Ham, Jonathan Lary, Joseph Leavitt, Reuben Libbey, James Lucas 3rd, John Lucas, Thomas Lucas, William Lucas, Samuel Mellows, David Piper, John Piper, William Rogers, John Sinkler, Jeremiah Sinkler, Thomas Sproule, Enoch Thomas, William Twombly, Ichabod Tebbetts, Moses Tebbetts, Andrew Wiggin, James Wiggin and Nathan Weston. So far as is actually known none of these was killed in the war, though Thomas Lucas never returned and nothing was ever heard of him. The close of the war left the town very much impoverished.

THE CIVIL WAR

Wolfeboro played her part in the Civil War and furnished not only her quota of men, but also one heroic and picturesque figure, Major James R. Newell. Born in Brookfield, he enlisted in Wolfeboro. He was wounded several times, taken prisoner and escaped and after gallant service aided in the work of reconstruction. He died Mar. 1, 1880. The Wolfeboro G. A. R. Post No. 61, is named in his honor. Major William H. Trickey, Capt. Alvah S. Libbey and Capt. Albert J. Hersey are names which are closely associated with heroism in Wolfeboro's Civil War record. The men who enlisted from Wolfeboro with their regiments follow: First Infantry, John W. Fogg; Second Infantry, James Bresnehan;

*John S. Varney, (wounded); Third Infantry, William H. Trickey, (wounded, promoted to major, now a clergyman), Andrew J. Wadlea, (wounded, promoted to captain), *Hanna A. Chesley, Lowell Glidden, *Albert Paris; Fifth Infantry, *Richard R. Davis, (captain), *Henry B. Rendall, (2nd Lieut., returned home diseased and died Oct. 1862), John W. Fogg, (second enlistment), Lewis A. Chesley, Edgar Avery, *John F. Corson, (killed June 30, 1862), *William Huzzey, (died in service), *Wm. H. Hayes, *Caleb T. Kenistoon, Charles E. Tebbetts, Charles A. Libbey, John Doyle, Ezra Nutt, *William B. Nason, *John Sargent, (died in service Dec. 22, 1861), *Ezra Tibbetts, James W. Hooper, *Samuel Thomas, William C. Maleham, *John C. ## WOLFEBORO'S CHURCHES

Probably the first church in Wolfeboro was the Free Baptist, founded Oct. 19, 1792, at the house of William Rogers with eight members. A Congregational church was organized Nov. 25 of the same year, but later became extinct. John Snell, though not a minister, was an early preacher in the community.

FREE BAPTIST CHURCH

This church was organized Oct. 19, 1792. Its first pastor was the Rev. Isaac Townsend who so continued for about 40 years. The present pastor, Rev. Allen Keith, has preached in the church since 1901, succeeding Rev. Allan M. Freeman. Starting with eight members, the church has now a membership of considerably over 100. The Sunday school, which is a strong one, was established in 1841, by B. F. Parker. The church building is at Wolfeboro Falls, the present structure having been built in 1840. Some $2,500 have been spent upon the edifice in the past eight years.

There is some conflict of opinion as to when the Second Free Baptist church was established, but it seems to have been about 1833, though some authorities claim an earlier date. At that time however, 17 members of the mother church withdrew to form the second church at East Wolfeboro for local convenience. Rev. Yost has been pastor at the second church, which is now composed of Methodists and Baptists, for the past 20 years.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

In 1792, Nov. 25th, a Congregational church was organized with eight members, but shortly died. On June 17, 1834, the present church was formed, taking its beginning from the Sunday school established in 1823. Thomas Parnell Beach was the first pastor and so remained for about two years and a half. The church owes its strength, however, to the efforts of Rev. Jeremiah Blake, its next regular pastor. A $1,200 chapel was built in 1847. Rev. Charles E. Harris, the present pastor, came to the church in 1906.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Through the efforts of Elder Mark Fernald of Kittery, Me., a Christian church was founded in 1812, the third of January. There were six charter members and until 1838, Elder Mark Fernald was pastor. The present pastor, Rev. Willoe J. Hall, came in 1907. The first church building was erected in 1838, but was replaced in 1858, by a more modern structure on Main street.

ADVENTIST CHURCH

The Adventist church was founded in 1890, and in 1891 a chapel was built on Union street. This church has now a good membership. It has had but three pastors, Rev. Mark Stevens, Rev. E. A. Goodwin and Rev. W. F. Pottle, the present incumbent.

UNITARIAN CHURCH

Largely by the interest of Rev. S. C. Beane of Concord, the present Unitarian church was founded at a meeting on the Str. Lady of the Lake in 1882. There were 12 charter members. In 1887, the present handsome church was erected at a cost of about $6,000. The first pastor was Rev. Loren Benjamin Macdonald. At present, services are not held in the church, though it is expected that they will be renewed in the summer months of 1908.

CATHOLIC AND OTHER DENOMINATIONS

There is a Catholic chapel in the town built in 1898. No services are held there now and there is no priest. The church is for the most part supported by the summer people Plans are on foot for the erection of a $4,000 church sometime during 1908. There is also a Christian Science society in Wolfeboro. There are a number of followers of spiritualism.

SCHOOLS

Andrew Collins, teacher and minister, held the first school in Wolfeboro in 1781. Isaiah Horne kept school in 1782. Nathaniel Ambrose was the teacher in 1785, and from 1786 to 1790 there was no school in the town. The first division of the town into districts was made in 1790, Ambrose being in charge. The Wolfeboro and Tuftonboro academy was chartered in 1820, and is today the principal public school building of the town. It commenced operations in September, 1821. It was managed by the town. In 1866 it was known as the Christian Institute, but was reopened by the town in 1874 as a high school, so continuing until 1887, when the Brewster Free Academy commenced its career. According to the statute of 1899, providing for the payment of half the salary of a superintendent by the state for such groups of towns as should form school districts, Wolfeboro and Tuftonboro became the fifth district of the state. Henry R. Roberts was superintendent of school from 1903, when the division was made, until September 1907. He was succeeded by Harry L. Moore, the present incumbent, and Alton was added to the school district. There are 14 schools in Wolfeboro. Four are in the old academy building, 2 at S. Wolfeboro and 2 at Wolfeboro Falls. These are graded schools. The others are remnants of the old district schools in the outlying rural districts. They are being closed as rapidly as circumstances will permit.

BREWSTER FREE ACADEMY

Brewster Free Academy, the only institution of its kind in the United States, was founded by John Brewster, a native of Wolfeboro, who died there Jan. 13, 1886. The charter of the academy is dated June 23, 1887. It opened the following September with Edwin H. Lord as principal. He died in February, 1907, and was succeeded by the present principal, Dr. Charles S. Murkland, former president of New Hampshire college. There are about 140 students enrolled. The academy ranks high. Is strong in athletics. The faculty numbers eight beside the principal. Five buildings are occupied. The institution is provided for by a $10,000 annuity from John Brewster's estate. It is governed by a board of 11 trustees and is a close corporation.

BREWSTER LIBRARY

The Brewster Library was first thrown open to the public in March 1890. It was established under the provisions of John Brewster's will and is governed by trustees of the Brewster estate and of the town. It numbers about 4,000 volumes.

PROFESSIONAL MEN

LAWYERS

Wolfeboro has had some prominent members of the bar. Chief among the earlier members were Zachariah Batchelder, one of the first attorneys of the town; Joseph Farrar; William Copp Fox, noted as a poet, scholar, wit, and one of the shrewdest lawyers of New Hampshire in his time. Fox was drowned in Lake Winnipesaukee in May, 1898. Since 1885 the principal members of the bar have been Everett C. Banfield, former solicitor for the treasury, died in 1887; Judge of Probate David H. Hill, deceased; Judge of Probate Sewall W. Abbott, now practicing, opened office Dec. 15, 1885, appointed Judge of Probate Dec. 1889; Edward F. Cate, a native of Wolfeboro, but for many years in Minneapolis, Minn., now practicing, judge of police court 1895-1907; and William J. Britton, the junior of the Wolfeboro bar, former member of the legislature, practiced in Wolfeboro since 1905.

DOCTORS

Beginning with Dr. A. R. Cutter, one of the proprietors, the line of Wolfeboro medical men follows: Asa Adams, 1798; Moses Hoyt, 1810; John M. Norton, 1813; Jedediah Chapman, 1813; David T. Livy, 1820; Thomas J. Tebbetts, 1820; John L, Swinerton, 1831; Jeremiah F. Hall, 1834; Cyrus Blaisdell, 1840; Asa Perkins, 1850; Luther Pattee, 1860; Charles Moulton, 1860; Dr. R. H. King, 1860; Jeremiah R. Smith, 1865; Henry Rust Parker, 1865; Abiel Elliott, 1866; Herman I. Berry, 1884, (died 1907); Edwin H. Thompson, 1891. Those now practicing here in order of seniority are: Dr. Harvey Scott, Dr. S. P. Getchell, Dr. Curtis B. Cotton, of the elder physicians of the town; Dr. Fred Tobey, Dr. Fred Clow; Dr. H. W. Bradford, Dr. G. H Clough, occulists; Dr. Oliver Dowling, Dr. Fred E. Meader, Dr. B. W. Parshley, dentists.

INDUSTRIES OF WOLFEBORO

Wolfeboro's chief manufacturing interests are excelsior mills, a shoe factory, a box factory, sash and blind factory and a woolen mill, though the latter is not now running. There are three excelsior mills at Wolfeboro Falls, employing about 40 men. The three use some 6,000 cords of wood yearly. The Hutchins plants have been established since 1889. They ship to points east of the Mississippi river. O. P. Berry & Co., the third mill, ships in New England. They also make axe handles, the output being about 30 doz. daily. The excelsior mill was established in 1899 and the axe handle factory in 1885. The sash and blind factory of

S. Leavitt & Son is also located at Wolfeboro Falls and has been running about 17 years. It employs three men. There is a steam laundry and carriage repair shop at Wolfeboro Falls.

In Wolfeboro there is a branch of the Charles K. Fox Shoe Co. of Haverhill, Mass. This concern employes some 110 people, has been running five years and has an output of about 1,000 pairs daily. A larger shoe factory was located nearby, but is now out of existence. A box factory employing 30 men which was established in 1851 by Moses and Augustus Varney, Alpheus Swett and Benjamin Morrison, is now owned and operated by Stephen W. Clow and Charles F. Piper. Sawed lumber and box shook are its products.

The Wolfeborough Woolen Mills, incorporated in 1861, is located at So. Wolfeboro, but for some months has not been running. This concern manufactures blankets, employes about 75 people and has an output of 40,000 annually.

These are the chief industries of Wolfeboro today. There are also several tanneries and brick yards nearby, but most of them are now extinct.

TOWN INSTITUTIONS

Electric Light Plant—Wolfeboro owns and operates its own electric light plant which is paid for and now yielding good returns. The plant was constructed at a cost of $6,- 347.47 Jan. 1, 1898. Power is leased. The plant is under direction of the Board of Firewards.

Water Plant—The water works are also owned and run by the town. The gravity system is in use, Beech Pond being the source of supply. The plant has been in operation since 1889, has a $57,000 bonded debt, but is proving a success.

Huggins Hospital—By private subscription, the largest donors being the heirs and descendants of John Huggins of New York, a native of Wolfeboro, the Huggins Hospital was established and dedicated Dec. 31, 1907. The sum of $30,000 was raised and part of it spent upon a cottage, the home of the hospital. The remainder is kept as a fund for the maintenance of the Institution. The hospital is governed by a board of 15 trustees. There is no resident physician, all the doctors of the town having service at the hospital. An effort is to be made shortly to have the name changed to Huggins Sanitarium, so that special diseases may be treated. The town supports a free room.

History of Ossipee

Ossipee, N. H., is located in the White Mountain foot hills, sixty miles northeast of Concord. It is the county seat of Carroll county, N. H. It is eighteen miles in length with an approximate width of six miles. There are nine seperate post offices in the town, Ossipee, Center Ossipee, Centerville, Moultonville, Ossipee Valley, West Ossipee, Water Village, Leighton's Corners and Granite. The court house and county buildings are at Ossipee; the chief business center is Centerville; the main manufacturing interests are at Moultonville. The approximate population is 2,800. There are about 400 voters in the town. Ossipee is the highest point between Portsmouth and Conway. Water at the depot flows both north and south. There are several lakes and rivers in the town and vicinity. Ossipee lake lies partly in the town. Ossipee river flows out of it. Pine river passes through the eastern part. Bear Camp river enters the lake on the northwest. Other lakes and ponds are Dan Hole Pond, Lovewell's, Welch, Bean, Archers, Garland, White and Black ponds and Duncan lake. The Ossipee mountains are to the northwest. There is good fishing, lake trout and cusk and brook trout being the principal catch. Lumbering and agriculture are the chief pursuits of the inhabitants. There is an old Indian fort and an Indian burying mound in the town. There are no banks. Ossipee is reached by the Boston & Maine from Sanbornville, N H., and from North Conway. Stage lines run to Wolfeboro, Freedom, Effingham and Tuftonboro.

EARLY SETTLEMENT

But glimmering bits of the early history of Ossipee float down to us from the days when those who are long since silent lived and worked in this region. A few missing sheets in the earlier town records tell their tale mutely of a past beyond recall. The names of Joseph Garland, Elder Wentworth Lord, Eliphalet Sias, John Wadleigh, John and Paul Canney, Daniel Smith, Nathaniel Ambrose, Benjamin Sceggel and others appear in the earliest town records, about 1790. It is said that the first settler was John Wadleigh who came from London, and that Elder Wentworth Lord and Richard Beacham came about the same time, but just when this was is not known. Probably the settlement of Ossipee dates sometime between 1765 and 1770. It would be almost impossible to come nearer than that. It is known for a certainty that Moses Sceggel was the first white male child to be born in the town. But even the date of his birth is wrapped in obscurity. The marriage of Nathaniel Locke of Wakefield and Abigail Pitman of Ossipee, Mar. 19, 1803, was the first in Ossipee. Oct. 20, 1784, the petition for incorporation was signed by Jacob Brown, Josiah Poland, Winthrop Smith, Andrew Folsom, John Sanderson, John Cooley, Joseph Ames, Noah Dow, Ebenezer Hall, Nathaniel

Brown, Joseph Pitman, Jabez Garland, Samuel Lear, Jacob Williams, John Scagel, Richard Beacham and Cornelius Dinsmore. So it is fair to suppose that many of these were among the first settlers. Some of their names appear upon subsequent town records. James Dearborn had a mill on Pine river which was first assessed in 1804, but Joseph Garland is said to have had the first mill, a primitive structure on Beech river near the Tuftonboro line. The first road was a line like affair cut with much difficulty through the virgin forest westerly past the meeting house. There was a through road built by the Masonian proprietors from the settled districts below to Conway.

IN COUNTY AND STATE

No town in County Carroll is more closely linked with the county itself than Ossipee, the county seat. Here is the court house and here too the county farm and in this town each great trial since the county has been organized has brought forth the greatest effort of the county's lawyers and has called inhabitants for miles around to the court house.

In 1839, it became evident that the pressure of business and the extent of territory demanded the division of Strafford county. As early as 1807, the town records contain the following entry: "Voted not to send an agent to Ephriam Knight's on the last Monday of March about a proposed new county." From this it can be seen that the question was one of interest for over 30 years before any action was taken. In 1838, the town voted in favor of the bill before the legislature for the division of the county. The result of this agitation was legislation and December 23, 1840, the legislature's act providing for the establishment of Carroll and Belknap counties was approved. The act says: "the said county of Carroll shall include all the lands and waters included within the following towns and places, which now constitute a part of the county of Strafford, to wit: Albany, Brookfield, Chatham, Conway, Eaton, Effingham, Freedom, Moultonborough, Sandwich, Tamworth, Tuftonborough, Ossipee, Wakefield and Wolfeborough, and the said towns be, and the same are hereby, severed and disannexed from the county of Strafford."

The legislative act of Jan. 5, 1853, disannexed Bartlett, Jackson and Hart's Location from the county of Coos and annexed them to Carroll county.

The county of which Ossipee is the county seat contains an area of nearly six hundred square miles. It was named in honor of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, one of the most distinguished signers of the Declaration of Independence.

Ossipee's plans to be prepared for the county seat are due to the far-sightedness of Asa Beacham, a member of the Strafford county delegation from Ossipee in 1839. It was decided by this delegation to build a court house in the northern part of the county. The decision was reached on Saturday and adjournment taken until the following Monday at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Beacham, realizing that the town who offered the most would secure the location, started on a drive for Ossipee. He returned Monday just in time for the adjourned session, took before the delegation an $850 subscription to be used in the erection of a court house, which he had raised in Ossipee, and secured the location. There were no other offers made. So Ossipee attained its county prominence.

The court house was built in time for the April term of court 1840. The court house is of frame with the exception of two brick wings, one built in 1856 and the other in 1877, for the safe keeping of records. It is two stories high, contains a court room forty-five by forty feet, offices for the registers of deeds and probate, clerk of the court, county clerk and county commissioners. About 1889, another addition was made to the rear of the court house. Here jury rooms, a judge's room, law library and attorneys' rooms were built. The law library is the property of the Carroll County Bar Association and contains the standard reference works.

In 1855, the board of county commissioners was created. They purchased in 1869, two farms of 250 acres for a county farm, located about a mile above the Ossipee depot. This is now used as a site for the poor farm, county jail and insane inmates. Ossipee contributed $1,000 of the $5,000 used in the purchase. In 1870 a two and a half story house with a three story L and a two story wood shed, the upper part of which is used as an insane ward, was erected. A $6,000 barn built in 1874, was burned ten years later by an Indian lad who wanted to see the cattle jump at the fire. The present barn was completed in 1885. The jail, brick, with four double cells, was built in 1871. The superintendent of the poor farm is also the jailer. Thomas Nute was ths first superintendent. He held the office one year. Sias M. Giles, three years, (died in office); Jacob Manson, three years; Porter Philbrick, three years; W. A. Sherburne, three years; Jacob Manson, 1884-1895, (died in office); Frank Melloon, the present incumbent, took office in the spring of 1895.

Ossipee's sons have had their parts to play in state affairs. They have been: Samuel Quarles, state councillor, 1814-16; Samuel Quarles, state senator, 1810-12; Ezekiel Wentworth, state senator, 1829-30. County officials and court officials from Ossipee have been: Samuel Quarles, C. J. Court of Sessions, 1821-25; Samuel Quarles, Justice Court of Common Pleas, 1821; Aldo M. Rumery, clerk Supreme Court, 1887-1900; Sanborn B. Carter, register of probate, 1851-56; Edgar Weeks, register of probate, 1885-87; Sanborn B. Carter, register of deeds, 1874-80; Aldo M. Rumery, register of deeds, 1881-87; James O. Gerry, register of deeds, 1887-1895; Henry Abbott, register of deeds, 1895-1908; George B. Sias, sheriff, 1892-94; F. S. Lord, county commissioner, 1904-06; Brackett Wiggin, treasurer, 1843-44; Moses Merrill, treasurer, 1859-60; Thomas Nute, treasurer, 1867-69; Jacob Manson, treasurer, 1870-71; Joseph Q. Roles, treasurer, 1876-78; Charles W. Fall, treasurer, 1879-83; Sanborn B. Carter, solicitor, 1846-50; Luther D. Sawyer, solicitor, 1856-60; Oliff C. Moulton, solicitor, 1874-75; Joseph Q. Roles, county commissioner, 1861-63; Jacob Manson, county commissioner, 1881-83; Aldo M. Rumery, clerk of Superior Court, 1901-08.

BRIEF BITS ABOUT OSSIPEE

Was originally called New Garden, but incorporated Feb. 22, 1785, under the name of Ossipee.

Dan Hole, a pioneer hunter and trapper, after whom Dan Hole pond is named, was probably the first white man in the region. He was not, however, a settler.

A burying ground and ruins of ancient cellars near Center Ossipee tell of settlements here before the records of the town or earlier Masonian Proprietors confirm them.

First inventory taken in 1802. Dr. Moses Colby was probably the first physician, about 1790. First town pauper taken care of in 1803.

Societies—Ossipee Valley Lodge No. 74, A. F. & A. M., Dana J. Tasker, Centerville, secretary. Ossipee Lake Grange No. 175, P. of H., Miss Zaida Hearne, Centerville, secretary. A lodge of Red Men.

OSSIPEE'S INDUSTRIES

Where formerly a number of mills and manufacturies existed at various times in the town of Ossipee, today there are few. Three concerns employing about 75 people now make up the industrial portion of the town. One of these, The G. W. Bent & Co.'s factory, is located at Moultonville, another the Charles Smart mill, at Center Ossipee and the third, the J. C. Pike mill, on the Pine river lot.

The G. W. Bent & Co. concern is the largest in Ossipee. Beds, cot, spring and cabinet, morris chairs and house finishings are manufactured. There is also an excelsior mill in connection. The factory employes an average of 40 men throughout the year. In the excelsior mill from 800 to 1,000 cords of poplar are used yearly. About 1,000,000 feet of lumber is used in the bed factory. They ship throughout New England and are a branch of G. W. Bent & Co. of Boston. The plant was founded by John Moulton, but was constructed upon its present scale by L. D. Moulton, his son, in 1868. A stock company was formed in 1890 and G. W. Bent leased the plant from them. In 1903, he purchased the property outright and now owns it.

J. C. Pike operates the most extensive lumber plant in the town. His mill was established by him in 1888, and since then has been in a most flourishing condition. The annual output is in the neighborhood of 3,000,000 feet yearly. He employes some 25 men on the average. Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania are his chief shipping points.

Charles Smart operates a sash, door and blind factory and saw mill in Center Ossipee. He employes in the neighborhood of ten men. His shipping points are largely local. The plant has been in operation for a number of years.

In days gone by Ossipee has had woollen mills, tanneries and other examples of commercial prowess. Fire and lack of demand for the smaller manufacturer has driven these out of existence.

SCHOOLS OF OSSIPEE.

Mention is first made of the school system of Ossipee in a town meeting Oct. 6, 1803. It was then decided to accept the division of the town into districts as made by a committee appointed for this purpose. There is no record of any division of schools earlier than this, though from mention in the town records it is evident that Ossipee had some system for the instruction of her young, prior to 1795, when this entry is found: "Voted, that those parts of the Town that have not had the benifit of the School in times past, Shall have their proportion out of the other parts that have had the benifit of it." In 1818, there were 15 school districts. At present there are 14 schools in the town, though actually but 12, as two of the schools alternate their winter and spring terms. The town schools are governed by a school committee consisting of Charles A. White, Charles A. Wiggin and Harry P. Smart. It is understood that an effort will be made this year to place the town in a state district, thus securing the services of a superintendent with state aid.

OSSIPEE'S CHURCHES

Today in Ossipee at what is commonly known as "Ossipee Corner," there stands the old meeting house of the town, the house which was built between 1801 and 1803, and this is now used as a church by the Methodists and other denominations. There is no doubt but that this was the first building used for religious services in the town. But it was not the first church. This honor belongs to the First Congregational church, organized through the efforts of Rev. Samuel Hidden of Tamworth in 1806. There is a later church at Moultonville organized about 1866. Arrangements were made to secure a preacher in Ossipee as early as 1791, and later Elder Wentworth Lord did some ministerial work in the community. No other records of a regular preacher are now in existence.

THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Rev. James Thurston, evidently a missionary in the new settlements, wrote a letter to Rev. Samuel Hidden of Tamworth about 1804 or 1805, advising the organization of a church in Ossipee. Although certain to decrease his own membership to a great degree, Rev. Hidden entered into the idea with enthusiasm, with the result that Sept. 27, 1806, a meeting was held in Ossipee at the house of a settler. There were members of Hidden's church and members of other denominations present. The church was thus organized and for several years held meetings at various homes in the community. Dec. 25, 1825, the society was organized and plans laid to buy land and erect a church building. The first tree for the church was felled in May, 1827, and the following January the church was dedicated. The first pastor was Rev. Samuel Arnold, ordained and installed in 1829. His pastorate was short. In this year, 1829, a fifty acre farm was bought and a house upon it for a parsonage. That building still stands a little way below the church, but in 1874, the rest of the farm was purchased and the present parsonage erected. At the time of organization there were 20 members. Since that time there have been over twice the number, but the erection of other churches in localities more convenient locally, has caused a lessening in the membership. The present number is 32. The church has a strong Sunday school in connection. Sept. 27, 1906, the centennial celebration was held. The present pastor is Rev. Vincent Moses. Mrs. C. H. Smart is clerk and Mrs. A. A. Moulton superintendent of the Sunday school.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Though the youngest church in the community this is a strong and healthy religious institution organized through the efforts of L. D. Moulton, one of the leading citizens of Moultonville in about 1864. John J. Wiggin held a class meeting in 1864, which established the organization of the church and in 1865 Mr. Moulton purchased the Free Baptist church building at Center Ossipee and moved it to Moultonville. The corner stone was laid in that year, Rev. A. I. Church and Rev. A. L. Kendall assisting. Jan. 30, 1866, the church was dedicated by Rev. E. Adams, presiding elder of the Concord district, and the work of the church placed in the hands of Rev. G. W. Cass of South Tamworth for the time being. When the 37th New Hampshire Conference met April 11, 1866, the church had 30 members and 74 probationers. The first quarterly conference was held May 14, 1866. Here the following officers were chosen: Daniel Merrow, Abner Goldsmith, Moses Merrill, Daniel Tibbetts, George B. Sias, S. P. Wallace, Erastus C. Folsom and T. K. Shannon, stewards; L. D. Moulton, Daniel Merrow, Daniel Tibbetts, Charles Nason and John Moulton, trustees; John G. Wiggin, Benj. F. Abbott, class leaders. A Sunday school with 80 members was soon organized. Rev. Geo. W. Carr, 1866-69, was the first pastor. Rev. Frederick H. Corson is the present pastor.

The Bullock Church, so called, was an offshoot of the Freewill Baptist church, and had an organization for some 20 years following 1856. Its pastor was Rev. J. Bullock. It controlled and occupied the old church at Leighton's Corners but the organization is practically extinct.

The Second Freewill Baptist Church (Chickville), was organized through the efforts of Elder John Chick. He succeeded in building up a large and strong church about 1836. After some years it was found impossible to maintain a pastor and the ministrations to this society were made from the Water Village church.

The Third Freewill Baptist Church was maintained for some years but has long since passed into history.

The First Freewill Baptist Church sprang from a branch of the "Church of Christ," beginning its active efforts about 1806. During the summer of 1807 several were baptised, among whom were the following: Seth Fogg, Jno. Goudy, Peggy Leighton, Martha Hodsdon, Ebenezer Tasker, and Sally Kelley. During the year 1808 eighteen more were baptised. Their house of worship, referred to as the "old church" was built about 1818 and the "new church" about 1856, near Leighton's Corners. After the "new church" was erected the First Ossipee Church met and disbanded and a new organization was formed on Freewill Baptist principles and called "The First Ossipee and Wakefield Church." Like so many other of our formerly flourishing societies this one has now gone into decline and active efforts have for some time ceased.

Among the more active as Elders and Pastors have been Elders John and William Buzzell, Jacob Norton, Jeremiah Bullock, Evangelist Daniel Jackson, Elder John Wentworth, Elder Daniel Wentworth, Elder Jas. Roberts, Elder Jas. Emery, and Elder Hobbs, all before 1850. Among other leaders since that date have been Revs. T. W. Hill, O. F. Russell, A. D. Fairbanks and L. A. Jones.

The Fourth Freewill Baptist Church began its corporate existence about 1836, at Ossipee Corner. The original members were: Moses Hanson, Jr., Jno. Rogers, Daniel Goldsmith, Thos. Rogers, James Small, James Young, William Young, Joanna Hanson, Nancy Rogers, Sally Rogers, Eliza Goldsmith, Mary Goldsmith, Betsey Goldsmith, Olive Bennett, and Nancy Burleigh.

Among the men who have served this church from time to time have been the following: Elders Jno. Brooks, Jno. Chick, Moses Hanson, H. Webber, Samuel Knowles, N. Foss, and John Walker, Rev. Mr. Wood, Rev. F. P. Smith, Rev. D. I. Quint, Rev. A. D. Fairbanks, and Rev. J. Fawcett.

Water Village Freewill Baptist Church was organized July 12, 1870, with ten members, which number in less than 20 years increased to 70. The society owns a good church building and parsonage. Among the pastors who have served this church have been the following; Revs. E. G. York, H. P. Mansur, A. D. Fairbanks, D. W. Dealtry, W. H. Ward, S. J. Gould, N. A. Avery, M. P. Tobey, and John Walker. There is no resident pastor for this year recorded.

MILITARY MATTERS

The War of the Revolution was too early an event to allow many of the settlers of Ossipee to have a part as citizens of this town. Several of them were in the Revolutionary Army, serving other towns.

There was also a goodly number of the citizens of Ossipee in the service in the War of 1812-14.

The people of the town of Ossipee may be justly proud of the part her hardy and patriotic sons played in the great tragedy enacted in the south during the awful four years of sectional struggle of 1861-65. It will be useless for us in our weak way to praise the men who gave their lives or risked them, and equally useless to praise the town whose sterling qualities and spirit sent them forth to serve their country. But it is sufficient to say that the records we have had access to show that nearly 170 sons of Ossipee were enlisted in the service in the War of the Rebellion. We give below the names of these men as completely as we have been able to secure them.

History of Effingham

Effingham lies between Ossipee Center and Freedom, having stage connections with East Wakefield. Its population is in the neighborhood of 600, scattered over five villages, Effingham, Center Effingham, Effingham Falls, South Effingham and Pine River. The town is northeast from Concord 70 miles and six miles from Ossipee. Its original name was Leavitt's Town and it is the parent town of Freedom. The interests are largely agricultural, though there are two saw mills. It was at one time an educational center, claiming the first normal school in the United States.

EARLY SETTLEMENT

Effingham, originally Leavitt's Town, was contained in a grant made by the Masonian Proprietors June 28, 1749. Additions were made to this grant Dec. 20, 1749, the original holders being Nathaniel Gookin, Thomas Marston, Samuel Marston, John Leavitt, Thomas Parsons and seventy-four others. The boundaries were as follows: "Commencing at the Province line at the head of a township granted to John Ham and others, near Province Pond, so called, then on said Ham's head line two and one third miles, then north 42° west 7 miles, then north 48° east to the Province line, then on said line to the first mentioned bounds."

James C. Dearborn of Stratham was the first settler, coming in 1768. He settled near the old Hobbs farm. Dearborn was there about a year when other settlers commenced to move in. Walter Avery was the next comer and at about the same time William Palmer took a lot near Lord's Hill. He came from Rye. A Mr. Dow came next from New Market and with him a Mr. Hilton. James Titcomb from Exeter had his home in what is now the land beyond Durgin's pasture. All of these came about 1768-80. Other settlers were: Coffin Page, Thomas Parsons, Weare Drake, one of the most prominent men of the early history of the town, Captain John Leavitt, Benjamin and Asahel Dearbon, Carr and Jeremiah Leavitt, Jeremiah Marston, the two Lampreys, Nathan Brown, Jonathan and Morris Hobbs, Joseph Palmer and John Drake. All of these men came before the Revolution. In 1775, there were 83 inhabitants.

Before The town was incorporated Aug. 15, 1778 as Effingham, but long before this the early proprietors held meetings, elected officers and did the business of the town.

The town was among the most prosperous in its vicinity during the years before the Revolution. The settlers were for the most part interested in clearing their land, getting as good roads as possible, raising some grain and caring for the poor. These were the questions that seemed uppermost in their minds from the records of early proprietary meetings. Later, with the incorporation of the town, the busy days of the Revolution, they had troubles of a different nature on their hands.

PROFESSIONAL MEN

Doctors—Dr. William Taylor was the first physician to practice regularly in the town. He came to Effingham about 1785, remaining until 1800. His brother, Dr. Benjamin Taylor, practiced in the town from 1802 to 1809. Other early physicians were Erastus Freeman, 1805-07; Dr. Tibbetts, 1805; Dr. Chellis, 1805; Dr. Theophilus Doe, 1818; David Libby, 1817-20; Dr. David Weld Clark, 1802, 1819-46; Dr. Ebenezer Wilkinson, 1828-36; Dr. David W. Stickney, 1838 and a number of others. Among the physicians born in Effingham who have practiced there and elsewhere are Dr. A. Dearborn, born 1798, died 1848; Dr. C. L. Drake, born 1798, died 1869; Dr. Joseph Huntress, Dr. Joseph H. Warren, Drs. Geo. W. and Frank T. Lougee, Drs. O. M. and T. N. Drake and Dr. Starr Barker. Dr. James M. Leavitt was born in Effingham July 26, 1852. He is a member of the class of '78, Bowdoin Medical School and since graduation has been in practice at Lord's Hill. Dr. Albert N. Gould, a member of the class of '72, Dartmouth Medical School, has practiced in Center Effingham since 1875.

Samuel Q. Dearborn, Dartmouth '60, read law with his father and also with Hon. Daniel M. Christie. Since his admission to the bar he has practiced to a certain extent in Effingham. He is the only lawyer in the community.

EFFINGHAM CHURCHES

An historical review of the churches of Effingham is fraught with much interest. The erection of the first meeting house, now standing, brought forth a bitter controversy among the pioneer inhabitants as to location. Squire Lord ran a tavern on Lord's Hill and was anxious to have the meeting house in front of his hostelry. Other members of the community wanted it elsewhere. The result was a deadlock and for a dozen meetings or so no location could be fixed. As neither party would recede from their position, disinterested persons were called in and fixed the location in front of Squire Lord's house. The house was built in 1798. Mar. 15, 1797, the following charge is recorded in the treasurer's book: "pay Isaac Lord for attendance, rum and victualling committee to fix place for meeting house."

Mr. John Adams was the first preacher in the town, Effingham uniting in 1780 with other towns for his support. He received six bushels of corn per Sabbath, the meetings being held at Weare Drake's house.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

This church was the first organized, dating its birth from 1798. It was the outgrowth of Mr. Adams' work and of Rev. Mr. Balch who preached in the town in 1783. Rev. Samuel Hidden was the real organizer, a Tamworth minister whose work was paramount in the early church development of all Carroll county. The church is now without a regular pastor or services and has so been for several years.

FREE BAPTIST CHURCH

This is now the only church in active existence in Effingham. It is located at Effingham Falls, Rev. J. W. Farrell being the pastor. The church was organized in 1825, Feb. 9, though it was the outgrowth of a religious revival of 1824. Joseph Davis was ordained July 1, 1824, and became the first pastor of the new church. The first house of worship, "The Davis Meeting House," was built in 1833, and, although it has undergone some repairs, is still standing and in use. The church has a large attendance and good membership. Regular services are held.

The Second Free Baptist Church at Lords's Hill was organized in 1838 and is now extinct, as is the third church at Effingham Falls, organized in 1842.

CALVINIST BAPTIST CHURCH

This church, located at Drake's Corner (Center Effingham) was founded August 22, 1807, by Rev. Wentworth

Lord, Parsonsfield, Me. It was organized at the house of Jacob Mills with 32 original members. The first church was built in 1822, replaced by a new one in 1844, this being remodeled in 1880. The first pastor was Rev. Levi Chadborn. The church now holds summer services only.

There is a society of Adventists who hold irregular meetings in Effingham.

EFFINGHAM SCHOOLS

From almost the beginning of the town, schools were among the heart interests of the inhabitants. The educational history of Effingham is most interesting. Chief in its account stands forth the claim that Effingham had the first normal school in this country.

Before the town was incorporated the clearing of a school lot commenced in 1770, one lot being set aside by the charter of the proprietors. The following vote shows the spirit of the town, taken from the town records about 1785 or 86:

"VOTED—To have a school; and that the master of said school shall find himself. Likewise Voted—that it shall be an English school. Voted—a school master to have 16 bu. of corn for month for what time he shall keep as a school master ought to; And That said corn shall be delivered at Nathaniel Hobbs house in said town within three months after the 15th day of June next. Likewise—that Capt. John Taylor be hired to keep said school during the term of three months."

There is no explanation given of the term "English school," but the supposition is that nothing but English, in the languages, was taught. At the same meeting, probably May 16, 1786, it was voted to build a school house "18 ft. x 24 ft., to stand on the northeasterly corner of Josiah Wedgwood's land." This was the first school house in town and was built on the identical spot where the school-house at Center Effingham stands today. A year or so later there was a school house built at Drake's Corner, and shortly after a third near the old John Bryant place. In 1795 there were five districts in the town. Now there are seven schools in the town.

Higher education came early. In 1836 the Weare Drake's store building became an academy, and a school, the Carroll Literary Institute was organized. This was successful for several years. In the fall the New England Masonic Charitable Institute opened in Masonic Temple. There were 55 pupils the first term. Rev. Elbridge Pepper was the first principal. There were 180 pupils the second year. Orphan children of Masons were admitted free. There has been no school there for a quarter of a century.

In 1819 the Effingham Union Academy was established and in 1830 James W. Bradbury came to the institution as principal from Parsonsfield, Me., on the condition that the school should be "for the instruction and training of teachers." This is said to be the first normal school in the country. The idea was Mr. Bradbury's own and proved successful. It so continued until 1845 when its existence ended. The building is now used as a school house.

This is the history of the schools of Effingham, probably as unusual and interesting as any town in New England. Today, though there are no academies, the town schools are of the highest order and efficiency. The present school committee: Sherman N. Cutting, William M. Fulton and Eugene S. Tewksbury.

EFFINGHAM'S INDUSTRIES

There are three sawmills in Effingham, all that remains today of what was once a reasonably prosperous iron town with a wool carding mill also. The John L. Demeritt mill at the Outlet was established by the present owner about 1881. The mill saws about 300,000 feet of lumber yearly and employes five men. Its shipping points are local. John Chase's mill was established about 1800 and is one of the first industries of the kind in Effingham. This mill saws in the neighborhood of 250,000 feet of lumber annually and employes from four to five men. Shipping points local. The I. S. Drake mill is near Centerville and does work largely for local consumption.

History of Tuftonboro

EARLY SETTLEMENT

Tuftonboro was not settled generally until after the turmoil of the Revolution had died down and the country was in a state of peace. Though granted to John Tufton Mason by the Masonian proprietors sometime in the 1760s, the exact date of the grant is not known. It is certain, however, that after the grant no efforts were made to settle the tract. A large part of the land on which the town now stands was acquired by Woodbury Langdon through purchase just before the Revolution. That he was instrumental in securing the settlement of the town is generally believed, as records are known to have existed in which grants have been given by Langdon to men whose names appear in the first inventory of the town. Statements conflict as to the number of inhabitants that the town had. In 1788, the first inventory of the town shows that 13 persons lived there, Phineas Graves, Benjamin Bean, Edward Moody, Obadiah Brown, William C. Warren, Hanson Libbey, Jonathan Brown, James Whitehouse, William Melling, Elisha Abbott, Benjamin Young and Grafton Nutter. A petition to exempt the town from a tax for not furnishing two soldiers during the war was made in 1789, the ground being taken that at the time the soldiers were wanted, the town was uninhabited and that in that year, 1789, there were but five residents in the town. The chief conflict in testimony comes from the fact that in 1790, there were 109 residents of Tuftonboro. The accepted opinion is that the 13 men in the first inventory were the first settlers of Tuftonboro, and that they made their settlement between 1780 and 1785. It is an established fact that the town of Tuftonboro was the latest settlement in the surrounding country. The statement is upheld by record that the town was incorporated about 15 years after its settlement, which would fix the date of settlement in 1781. There is no record of proprietors' meetings.

TUFTONBORO CHURCHES

In the year 1800, with the establishment of a Congregational church in Tuftonboro, the church history of the town begins, though this church had but a short existence. Rev. Joseph Kellum was the first minister, a Methodist. Ultimately this church became merged with the Methodist church now in existence. Another Congregational church was organized by Nathaniel Bickford several years later, buthad only a short life.

METHODIST CHURCH

Caleb Dustin preached the first Methodist sermon in the town in 1804 in a private house, known as the "Peavey House." In 1805, Tuftonboro was added to the New England Conference and Lewis Bates was established in charge of the portion of the circuit embracing the town. John Brodhead was the first presiding elder. The first church was built in 1820, and has since been remodelled. At present the Rev. Frederick H. Corson of Moultonville conducts services during the afternoon each Sunday.

FREE BAPTIST

This church, located in Melvin Village, was organized Oct. 16, 1837, with 25 members by Rev. William Buzzell. Peter Stackpole was the first clerk and Richard Caverly the first deacon. Rev. Buzzell remained for two years. Between 1845 and 1852, the church became almost extinct. This necessitated a reorganization in June, 1852. Rev. S. P. Fernald was called and took charge of the church. A church building, now standing and in use, was erected in 1866. There is no pastor at present, but Rev. E. P. Moulton of Brockton, Mass., has been preaching at the church and has received a call which it is understood he will accept. The membership is over sixty.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Organized at the house of Thomas French, May 27, 1820, at Center Tuftonboro, this church has been active ever since. There were 17 of the original members. Elder Mark Fernald was the first pastor and remained with the church for eight years. The church was reorganized in 1860 and Thomas Bartlett was chosen pastor. There are about 65 members and a strong Sunday School in the church. A church building was erected in 1839 north of Center Tuftonboro, and in 1869 was removed to Center Tuftonboro proper and rebuilt at a cost of about $2,000. An $800 parsonage was built in 1883. Levi Ferguson was the last pastor. Winter services are intermittent.

SECOND CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Second Christian Church at Mirror Lake was organized in 1864, Nov. 12, by Rev. Daniel Wiggin. Rev. Wiggin was pastor of this church for over a quarter of a century. A building was erected in 1869 and is still in use. Summer services predominate.

ADVENT CHURCH

This is called the Second Advent Church of Melvin Village. There are no services in the church now. It was organized in 1843 and in 1886 a building was erected. Elder Thacher W. Piper was the first pastor and the only resident pastor of the church.

TUFTONBORO SCHOOLS

Tuftonboro school history is one with that of Wolfeboro. Not only is the town in the same school district as its sister town, but it is also under the provisions of the Brewster legacy. The town voted for school money for support of the schools in its earliest town meetings, the amounts being in excess of that required by law.

MILITARY ACCOUNT

The Revolutionary War was too soon over to permit this town to have a part in its fortunes. But all other wars of note in which this country has been concerned has numbered among its supporters of the American cause soldiers from this town. The Civil War is the great military event of this century's militant side and the part borne by this town is an honor to the men who served it and a great source of pride to the sons and daughters who own it as their home and birthplace.

On October 15, 1861, there was a special town meeting to see if the town would adop tthe provisions of an act authorizing cities and towns to aid the families of volunteers and if so to raise such sum or sums of money as might be necessary. Favorable action was taken and one thousand dollars pledged on the credit of the town, the selectmen being appointed a committee to superintend its expenditure. In 1862 a vote was passed to pay two hundred and fifty dollars additional bounty; the same year it was voted to pay John Peavey five dollars for each person he would enlist to fill the town's quota for nine months men. The following year they voted three hundred dollars to drafted men or their substitutes. In 1864 the town voted fifteen thousand dollars to pay soldiers' substitutes and later voted to pay one thousand dollars to every citizen of the town who would enlist for one year.

Up to April, 1865, the records show that the number of soldiers furnished by this town was 128.

We give below as complete a list as we have been able to gather.

INCORPORATION

Tuftonboro was incorporated by the act of the legislature approved Dec. 17, 1795. Its incorporation was due largely to the endeavors of Tristram Copp, who, with the assistance of others of the leading citizens, aroused the feeling of the town and secured the following petition:

June 6, Anno Domi, 1795.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the State of New Hampshire in General Court convened at Hanover in sd State, Humbly Shews We your Petitioners Living on a tract of Land known by the name of tuftonborough in the county of strafford and state aforesaid. That we Labor under many Difficultyes on many Accounts Firstly not having no settled minister with us Nor schools which are two grate defects for the Good Of society, also on account of Rodes & many Other things which might be mentioned, but being fully sensible That your Honors will know what new settlers in a New place Labor under not being incorporated into a Town politic therefore we your petitioners pray that your Honors would take our Case in your Consideration and incorporate us into a township By the name of Tuftonborough with the Usual Priviliges that Townships are favored with fully Relying on your honors wisdom in the premises So in Duty bound will Ever pray.

History of Tamworth

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

The town of Tamworth is situated in the west central part of Carroll County and presents a rather broken surface of hills and valleys of beautiful outline. The name suggests an old and illustrious English namesake, but there is probably no connection between the two towns so widely separated.

The water privileges are marked for their variety and usefulness. The beautiful Chocorua Lake is situated in this town and is widely famed for its scenic attractions.

The town is bounded on the north by Albany, on the east by Madison and Ossipee, on the south by Ossipee and Moultonborough, and on the west by Sandwich.

Some of the incidents of the settlement of the town are of much interest and are illustrative of the indomitable spirit of the hardy people who carved their homes from the wilderness. Jonathan Philbrick brought cornmeal from Gilmanton on his back. Henry Blaisdell went to Kingston for a supply of meal and took two weeks for the feat while his family lived on milk during the time. Gamelial Hatch was of an inventive turn of mind and constructed a mortar in which he pounded flaxseed into meal which made a substitute for flour in making bread. It is stated in the Carroll County History that one woman put her children to bed and told one of her neighbors that she had put them to bed to die. However, help was rendered, food was forthcoming, and the pangs of hunger appeased. These conditions lasted however but few years, for it was not long before mills were built and the settlers were relieved of the long trips to secure provisions and supplies.

SETTLEMENT

The date of the settlement of this town is clouded in misty traditions. Many maintain that a settlement was made on the shores of Lake Chocorua around 1750, by Cornelius Campbell and his family. However, there are said to be no records that bear out any such belief. Undoubtedly there were many hunters and trappers temporarily located in this region, and may without hesitancy be called settlers, but no real and permanent settlement was made till Mark Jewell, in 1772, made his beginning on Stephenson Hill. Richard Jackman, a hunter and trapper, lived in town for many years near Jackman Pond, with his Squaw and an Indian, Sabitis, and around them were several other Indians but these latter left the town on the arrival of the whites.

But the first real settlement is stated by Rev. Mr. Cogswell in his "Memoir of Rev. Samuel Hidden," written about 1842, to have been the above mentioned Mark Jewell in 1772. He was soon followed by his brother Bradbury, a member of the first board of selectmen in Tamworth, elected July 2, 1777. These two men were very prominent in town for many years, very active in securing the town's Revolutionary War quota.

It is told that Bradbury Jewell built the first two story house in the town, the chimney of which required 14,000 bricks, for which he paid in continental money $14,000 00

The following were in town in 1772: Jackman, William Eastman, Jonathan Choate, David and Jonathan Philbrick. Stephen Mason, came from Moultonboro in 1773. By this time several families were located, among which were Sylvanus Hall's and Hezekiah Hackett's. The town began to fill up rapidly from 1773 on, and by 1775 there were 150 inhabitants. Very soon the proprietors built a road from the Sandwich line. In 1776 several families settled in the vicinity of Bear Camp Valley and in other parts of the town.

The town, having become thoroughly established, was called upon to furnish its share of men for the Revolutionary War. September 18, 1775, Elkanah Danforth enlisted, the first from Tamworth. Among those enlisting in 1776 were Joseph Eaton Keniston, Nicholas Kinestone, David Kinerson, Joseph Ames. 1777 first called forth Moses Head who said to the enlisting officers, "I go to die for my country," and before the year had ended lost his life in the service. Abial and Phineas Stevens and Isaac Head also died in that war. By 1783 the selectmen reported 53 taxable polls. By 1790 Captain George Dodge settled here. He became leading man in matters of church and state. His wealth was superior to that of the other settlers and in matters of dress and conveniences he and his family far outshown all other citizens of the primitive settlement. From this time on the prosperity of the town was assured and before 1820 the population had become nearly 1500. In the year 1813 the spotted fever made its ravages, then following close on this malady the cold seasons of 1816-17 and 18, a period of three years of great discouragement to the settlers, followed. During those years corn did not ripen, and summer frosts destroyed almost every crop.

So much for the early settlement and establishment of the town of Tamworth. Its settlers were strong men, hardy and brave, accustomed to the rigors of a cold climate and the privations of a wilderness home. With natures which knew no fear but in which ambition and courage were the key note, they battled with the elements and conquered nature in her fastnesses. The Tamworth which they builded and the one which we see today bear but little resemblance one to the other, but the names and the imprint of these men upon this town are never to be forgotten.

The township was granted October 14, 1766, to Lieutenant John Webster and others in sixty-eight equal shares. At that time the south line of the town was the 'supposed head line of Mason's Patent'; but the 'curve line,' as established subsequently, crosses the northwest corner, taking in the entire town. William Eastman, Richard Jackman, David Philbrick, and Jonathan Choate were the first settlers in 1771. Governor Wentworth's reservation is in the southwest corner of the town. A committee was appointed by the legislature February 22, 1785, to establish the line between this town and Sandwich.

The committee's decision was to be final. January 10, 1796, a committee was appointed to fix the lines between this town and the towns of Burton and Eaton. The decision was to be final. The matter came up again, however, and another committee was appointed December 23, 1808, to establish the lines between Sandwich, Tamworth, Eaton, and Burton, and report to the legislature. By an act approved January 13, 1837, some territory was severed from Ossipee and annexed to this town, and the same was severed from Tamworth and anndxed to Ossipee, June 25, 1859.

It is said that Colonel Jonathan Moulton was the original proprietor, the names of the grantees being inserted as a legal fiction to enable Governor Benning Wentworth to comply with the royal requisites for a charter, none of the grantees really having vested rights in the land, but the Bryants were evidently in occupation early. James Head became a resident, and was the progenitor of a good posterity; and Israel Gilman and Jacob Fowler owned lands here.

The grantees of Tamworth were Lieut. John Webster, James Cochran, Enoch Webster, Jas. Cochran, Jr., Jno. Merril, George Abbott, William Rogers, John Moore, Andrew McMillian, Samuel Osgood, Jas. Osgood, Wm. Cochran John Webster, Jr., Jona Stickney, Thos. Stickney, Josiah Miles, Joseph Hall, Jr., Samuel Moore, Daniel Stickney, Walter Bryant, esq., Joshua Abbott, Jona Merril, John Cochran, Samuel Cochran, Alexander Lessley, Stephen Holland, Abel Chandler, Timothy Walker, Jr., Isaac Cochran, John Davison, Hamilton Davison, Jona. Morrison, Thomas Clough, James Head, W. Bryant, Jr., Peter Coffen, Robert Fulton, William Coffen, R. Barnett, John Kimball, John Noyes Esq., Thomas Wallis, Rob. Rogers, Jun., Moses Coffen, Phineas Virgin, Samuel Dickey, Jo. Barnett, Jun., John Webster, Esq., Jas. Dwyer, Enoch Coffen, Israel Gilman, Samuel Gilman, Colo. Todd, Lieut. Colo. Barre, Hon. Geo. Jaffrey, Daniel Rindge, Esq., Jona. Warner, Esq., and Jacob Fowler.

CHURCH HISTORY

Congregational Society—The first preacher in this town was Rev. Joshua Nickerson from Cape Cod who ministered occasionally here until about 1778. In January, 1792, by vote of a special town meeting, Rev. Samuel Hidden of Gilmanton was engaged and from that time to the present his name has been the household word in the families of Tamworth. At the annual town meeting on March 13 of that a year town tax was voted for the support of Mr. Hidden. On September 12 the Congregational church was organized after much discussion of the creed and other matters connected therewith. During the winter of 1793-94 about thirty persons were converted and by the close of the century the church had enrolled 88 members. Beginning in 1800 for several years revival and prayer meetings were numerous and a large number of conversions resulted. Oh the 13th of of February, 1837, after a pastorate of 45 years, Mr. Hidden died. In July 1837 Rev. William L. Buffit became the successor of Mr. Hidden. This church has had many able and faithful pastors as successors of these men but no one man has ever so impressed his name and example upon the people of this town as did Samuel Hidden. Highly educated, wonderfully tactful, untiring in his efforts, and of a noble and deeply spiritual nature, his labors were bound to bear fruit and the influence of his life and deeds is still a potent factor in the life of the town and church he so faithfully served.

In 1781 the Rev. Benj. Randall founded the Freewill Baptist Church at Tamworth Iron Works. Active work was continued by the organization for several years until, in 1812, there were 100 members enrolled. For many years there was no house of worship and the residences of the citizens,, and the school houses served instead. In 1835 the church edifice was built. By 1843 171 members were reported. This wonderful prosperity of the church was due in a large measure to the faithful labors of Rev. James Emery who died November 22, 1844. In January, 1885, a new church was built and dedicated.

The Second Freewill Baptist Church was organized in 1822 with a membership of thirty under the care of Rev. David Bean. By 1835 there were seventy-three members. Five years later its number was 57, and in 1848 it ceased to exist.

The Third Freewill Baptist Church was organized in 1843 with forty-nine members near Fowler's Mills. After 1850 it was called the "Second Church." Rev. W. S. Merrill was its pastor and it had in 1851 a membership of sixty. In 1854 it is no longer on record.

The South Tamworth Freewill Baptist Church was received into the Quarterly Meeting with sixteen members under W. S. Merrill pastor, but the church existed only sixteen years from its first organization. From 1863 to 1871 another "Second" church was in existence.

The Methodist Episcopal Church in South Tamworth began its existence in 1824 and erected its first house of worship in 1832. In the year 1860 this building was rebuilt and greatly improved.

The church life of Tamworth has been much the same as we find in the typical New England town. It has imprinted a deep and lasting influence upon the people of the community, and the faithful labors of the many ministers and church workers have built up and maintained a strong community of interest and christian fellowship for the betterment of this town as a community and municipality of the state.

EDUCATIONAL ITEMS

In the early years church and state were very closely connected, and it was well into the last century before we notice the changes in that respect which are the rule today. In the beginning the people expected their minister to lead not only in spiritual things, but to instruct the youth in the elements of practical learning. The word of the preacher was law and his views were accepted by young and by old. No town was more fortunate in its selection of its ministers than was Tamworth when it chose the Rev. Samuel Hidden. He entered into the work of instructing the youth with marked zest and was highly influential in securing for the purposes of education the largest appropriations the town could at this time afford, and his influence did not end with his death, but his example continues to exercise a potent influence over the minds and views and habits of the people in the town he served and loved so well.

One of the marked services which he rendered the town was in being instrumental in securing the Tamworth Social Library with 600 volumes. He had the entire care of schools and when the common schools were not in session he turned his own home into a school house, and not only the youth of his own town, but that of neighboring towns as well came there and received the benefit of his enthusiasm and deep learning. It is said that some came a distance of fifty or sixty miles for his instruction.

He prepared several for college and many for the study of law and medicine. Mr. Hidden not only taught Latin and Greek and other branches of more modern nature, but was also a teacher of vocal music. Another writer has aptly said "He was the educator of the people."

In 1801, school money was divided in each district according to the number of the children between the ages of three and sixteen years. In 1802, the school committee was Rev. Mr. Hidden, Capt. George Dodge and Jacob Gilman. During this year ten school districts were bounded and established. In 1807, it was voted as follows "When Rev. Mr. Hidden visits any school and finds the master deficient, he is to report him to the selectmen, and the schools kept by women shall be inspected in the same manner." In 1819, the school purposes appropriation was $450. In 1822, it was voted that $20 of school money be expended for the purpose of text books for the poor.

No mention of Tamworth's educational side would approach completeness without a word concerning Henry T. Hodgkins, who was born the 3d of August, 1849, and began teaching at the age of twenty-one. He made the profession his life work, and supplemented it by serving as superintendent, throwing into that work the same enthusiasm as he put into his teaching.

MILITARY ACCOUNT

The military record of this town, in common with so many others of the patriotic state of New Hampshire, is an honor to its individual citizens and a source of just pride to the town as a whole. Elsewhere we have given the names of those who left their homes and families to answer that first call to arms in 1776. In 1812, and in the Mexican War we were in common with other New England towns, less inclined to bear a prominent part than would have been the case had the issues of those confiicts been more of interest to this part of the country. But the supreme test of the patriotism of Tamworth citizens was yet to come. In 1861, the call came to answer with the life blood of the flower of our manhood whether or not two nations should be made in this country, one slave and the other free. Any comment which we might make here upon the towns record in the war of the Rebellion would be useless and superfluous. From the best sources at hand we have compiled a list of the men who rendered service from Tamworth and leave the matter thus. These names constitute our Honor Roll and so long as civic pride is felt and a patriotic spirit is maintained, so long should every citizen of Tamworth revere and honor these men. The names follow:

Wm. P. Ames, Jos. H. Allen, Wm. H. Burbank, Andrew Brackett, Wm. W. N. Ballard, Henry Burmingham, John Butler, Andrew Brackett, Wm. Bernie, Jas. C. Blaisdell, Jos. P. Burbank, Geo. A. # History of Freedom

ORGANIZATION

Freedom was incorporated in 1831, as North Effingham. Its territory included that portion of the original Effingham lying north of the Great Ossipee River. The name North Effingham was retained only a little more than a year when it was changed to Freedom. The town is bounded as follows: on the north by Eaton and Madison, on the east by Porter, on the south by Effingham, and on the west by Ossipee. A former writer says that there is a small island in the Ossipee River on which two states, three counties and four towns border; States of Maine and New Hampshire, Counties of Carrol, N. H., York and Oxford of Maine, and the towns of Freedom and Effingham, N. H., and Porter and Parsonsfield, Maine.

The early settlement of this town is one with that of Effingham, so we pass over that portion and refer the reader to the account of Effingham for any data on the early settlement.

FACTS OF INTEREST

1749—Proprietors of the John Tufton Mason purchase met at Portsmouth and granted quantity of land six miles square to Nathaniel Gookin, Thomas Marston, Samuel Marston, John Leavitt, Thomas Parsons and 74 others. Among the latter were several by name of Marston and Leavitt. Other names were Drake, Dearborn and Palmer, nearly all from Hampton, North Hampton, Rye and Exeter.

1761—Proprietors' meeting in John Leavitt's hotel, North Hampton; voted to hire a surveyor to lay out the town; Daniel Sanborn engaged.

CHURCH HISTORY

Baptist Church—This society was organized July 25, 1857, by members of former Baptist Church and two from the Free Baptist Church, Parsonsfield, Maine. Rev. Wm. W. Whitten did much to encourage and assist in its organization. Among those who were present at the first meeting were Ezekiel Andrews, Abigail Andrews, Mehitable Andrews, Orren Stackpole and Hannah Stackpole. At this meeting another member, Zillah T. Mills, was voted in. In 1858, Rev. Thomas J. Sweet visited this church and rendered much valuable assistance. During this year M. H. Sawtelle was settled as pastor. In 1862, Rev. Wm. N. Slason, began his term as pastor and was succeeded in 1867, by Rev. A. H. Estey.

Other pastors, many of whom were students, have labored faithfully with this society and its work has been productive of great good. The church has been thoroughly repaired from time to time and furnishes a neat and commodious house of worship.

Christian Church—On June 12, 1858, the "Church of Christ" in Freedom was organized by Elder John Buzzell of Parsonsfield, Maine, and Elder King Atkinson of Eaton. H. S. McDaniel, Mehitable Bennett, Solomon Andrews, Rola

Andrews, Betsey Harmon, Lovel Towle, Lucy A. Towle, Uriah Towle, were the members. Others joined later and on October 21, 1866, this church voted to join with Association of Christians in Strafford County. Thus was formed the first Christian Church in Freedom. The house of worship of this society was erected in 1867, at a cost of $3000 by a company composed of Elias Towle, Josiah Thurston, Horace P. Wood, Alvah M. Davis, Ransellar Towle, and others that were paid by the sale of pews and the building passed the title to the pew holders and went under the control of the Christian Society. Elias Towle left a legacy of $1000, the interest of which was devoted to the use of this church and also a parsonage of equal value on same conditions.

Rev. A. W. Hobbs, first pastor of the society continued in that capacity for about nine years. He was succeeded by Rev. Charles E. Goodwin and E. K. Amazeen who stayed here two and one half years and three years respectively. Rev. Nathaniel T. Ridlon became pastor in 1884. M. J. Hornsberger is the present pastor.

MILITARY ACCOUNT

The part borne by the people of the territory now known as Freedom, is merged under the name of Effingham, which was the corporate name of the whole of the territory now known as Freedom and Effingham.

The first real military part borne by this town, was during the Civil War, 1861-65. We have compiled as complete a list as possible of the men enlisted from this town and give same below:

PHYSICIANS

Dr. Calvin Topliff, born in Hanover, 1807, began practice in Alton in 1829, but settled here in 1830, and remained until his death in 1867. Besides being an excellent physician he was considered one of the best informed Masons in the state and the order of the Eastern Star bears his name. His son Frank, born 1840, also became a physician.

A. D. Merrow was another doctor of prominence, and some years president of Carroll County Medical Society. Dr. Alonzo Towle born in Freedom, February 28, 1844, began practice in Biddeford, Maine, and continued later in Malden, Mass. In 1882, he came to Freedom where he has since resided. Dr. Geo. W. Lougee, son-in-law of Dr. Merrow, has been for a number of years in active practice, and also keeps the village drug store. Rev. A. W. Hobbs has for many years been an "eclectic" practitioner.

PART II

Census-1908

The population of the towns of Ossipee, Tuftonboro, Wolfeboro, Tamworth, Freedom and Effingham has been arranged in families where it has been possible. In addition to the resident living members, the names of the non-resident members are included. It should be borne in mind that this plan does not include the names of all former residents of this town, as the names of the non-residents appear only when one or both of the parents are still living in the town. After the name of each non-resident will be found the present address, when such address has been given to us. Non-residents are indicated by the (*).

When a daughter in a family has married, her name taken in marriage appears after her given name in parenthesis, the name preceded by a small m, thus: (m ).

Following the names of the population is the occupations. To designate these we have used the more common abbreviations and contractions, as follows: Farmer—far; carpenter—car; railroad service—R R ser; student, a member of an advanced institution of learning—stu; pupil, a member of a lower grade of schools (including all who have reached the age of five years)—pl; housework—ho; laborer—lab; physician and surgeon—phy & sur; clergyman—clerg; merchant—mer; teacher—tr; blacksmith—blk; clerk—cl; bookkeeper—bk kpr; lawyer—law; mechanic mech; machinist—mach; engineer—eng; maker—mkr; worker—wkr; work—wk; shoe shop operative— s s op; cotton or woolen mill operatives —mill op; weaver—weav; spinner—spin; electrician—elec; painter—ptr; carriage work—car wk; dress maker—dr mkr; insurance—ins; traveling salesman, or commercial traveler—sales, or coml trav; music teacher—mus tr; teamster—team; general work—genl wk; mariner—mar; employ—emp; retired —retd; telephone operative—tel op; telegraph operative—teleg op.

Census of Ossipee

NOTE—Where no Post Office address is expressed Ossipee is understood. Other Post Offices are abbreviated thus: Moultonville—M'vlle; Centreville—Ctvlle; Water Village—W Vil; Ossipee Valley—Valley; Centre Ossipee—Ctr; West Ossipee—West; Wolfboro Falls—W Fls; Leighton's Corners—L Cor. R. F. D. routes are designated by the number of the route.
